DEATH.

On August 19th, at "Clarendon," Victoria Park, CHARLES ALFRED KERR, the beloved infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McEwen. [1893]

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 21st, 1893.

A NOTIFICATION has been issued by Sir Thomas Wade, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul-General, in relation to the Chinese naval or military service in the event of war between China and Russia. Sir Thomas Wade says that he has noticed references to the subject in the local newspapers, and adds:—"I could have wished much that had been written on this subject unsaid, for while, on the one hand, speculation of the kind is calculated to excite false hopes, it is as likely on the other to produce a feeling of irritation." His Excellency goes on to remark that it is not his purpose to criticise the opinions expressed, but to remind such of Her Majesty's subjects as may take an interest in the question of military service in China of the existence of certain regulations which he thinks may have been overlooked by the writers in question. The regulations alluded to by Sir Thomas Wade are to be found in the Chinese and Japan Order in Council, 1865, and the paragraphs (81 and 82) bearing on the subject are appended to the Minister's notification. According to those regulations any person either aiding or taking part in a war carried on against China or carried on by China against another power or against a rebel force in China shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by two years' imprisonment with or without hard labour, with a fine of five thousand dollars, or by a fine of that amount without imprisonment. Such person if convicted is also liable to deportation. It is obvious, therefore, that any persons contemplating enrolling themselves in the service of China had better look before they leap. There are many, no doubt, who imagine they can enter the Chinese service without incurring any great risk, and some, for good pay, would join it, though all pains and penalties threatened in the Order in Council. A Shanghai contemporary says that a bureau has been opened for the engagement of foreigners for service in the Chinese army, and that it is really the fact, the British Minister's notification has not been issued any too soon. The Chinese Government will, however, probably experience little difficulty in securing the assistance of foreign mercenaries, if they require them, from among other nationalities.

Tax reports spread by the Shanghai papers that Colonel Gordon had agreed to accept the post of military adviser to His Excellency the Viceroy of China have proved, like many other statements concerning the gallant officer, altogether wrong. He has left Tientsin and has arrived at Shanghai en route, it is said, for England. It is quite probable that his mission has failed entirely, but it is also possible that the blunt, straightforward advice he is reported to have given the Chinese Authorities may yet bear fruit. In any case he has fulfilled his purpose in going to China, we presume, and he may now perhaps carry out his intention, expressed when in this Colony, of returning to England by way of Japan and America. Colonel Gordon has thus proved that he had no intention of entering the Chinese service, and we trust that he may, on his return to England, obtain some post better fitted for him and more worthy of his acceptance than a private secretaryship.

The O. and O. Co.'s steamer Relief, Captain Davidson, returned from Aberdeen Dock yesterday morning.

The Iron Duke, 14, Captain H. F. Cleveland, steamed round to Aberdeen yesterday morning at five o'clock and was safely docked by 9.30 a.m.

The Spanish steamer Zambora, Captain Aranzaga, will leave for San Francisco tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. The Spanish Governor, having purchased her, she will be named the Patino when in Manila.

We are informed by the Superintendent of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company that it was expected that communication would be restored with Singapore early this morning, the company's repairing steamer having picked up the cable and spliced through the cable last evening.

"Atlas" writing in the World of July 14th says:—"After all it seems that Prince Albert Victor is again to accompany his younger brother Prince George, in his next cruise on H.M.S. Beagle, which is to be commanded by Mr. St. John, amongst other distant lands, are to visit both China and Japan."

We learn that Sergeant Quincey has been transferred by His Excellency the Governor to an Inspector, and that considerable dissatisfaction prevails among the members of the Police Force at the appointment, more particularly since he has been nominally a sergeant, and as an attendant at Government House.

The Chinese Festival of All Souls has been going on since the first of the present month, and will continue to the end of it. The chief ceremonial observance will take place on the 15th, when the public subscription before the Temple of the gods of literature and war, Hollywood Road, between the 24th and 27th instants, when visitors and other persons, on a small scale, but rather larger than usual, from Hong Kong and other parts of the Chinese diaspora, will be present. At that time there was a floral display, and a display in honor of the occasion. We have heard that the Chinese had been in the place of silk collected for.

The steamer Chung Ching, Captain Chong, arrived here yesterday and reports having left Amoy on the 18th inst. The vessel in question was a pilot and struck a bank of the mouth of the river, causing the vessel to leak. It continued heavy gales and high seas for the first few days, during which the cargo shifted and the vessel made only slow progress. It was expected to arrive at Hong Kong on the 20th inst., but was delayed by weather on the 21st March, from which port she was towed to Plymouth, arriving on the 4th. When in port she had to discharge all the "brown cargo" and upon examination two beams in the main hold were found to be broken. The vessel was in port until the 22nd inst., requiring, after refitting clear of the Channel experienced gales for about four days, then the weather and light on the 26th inst. of Good Hope, crossing the line on the 27th inst. From the Cape and more gales for fifteen days, and then light breezes from the 10th to the equator, light breezes and calms through the Straits and Java Sea, also up the China Sea, S.W. breeze prevailing.

We are informed by a Chinese merchant in this Colony of a proceeding on the part of the master of a merchant steamer which reflects unfavorably on the Chinese community. The vessel in question arrived here a short time from Hong Kong, and on the passage up one of the Chinese passengers, a respectable trader, died. The passengers thereupon asked the captain to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so. He was then asked to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so. He was then asked to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so.

The Spanish steamer Zambora, Captain Aranzaga, will leave for San Francisco tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. The Spanish Governor, having purchased her, she will be named the Patino when in Manila.

We are informed by the Superintendent of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company that it was expected that communication would be restored with Singapore early this morning, the company's repairing steamer having picked up the cable and spliced through the cable last evening.

"Atlas" writing in the World of July 14th says:—"After all it seems that Prince Albert Victor is again to accompany his younger brother Prince George, in his next cruise on H.M.S. Beagle, which is to be commanded by Mr. St. John, amongst other distant lands, are to visit both China and Japan."

We learn that Sergeant Quincey has been transferred by His Excellency the Governor to an Inspector, and that considerable dissatisfaction prevails among the members of the Police Force at the appointment, more particularly since he has been nominally a sergeant, and as an attendant at Government House.

The Chinese Festival of All Souls has been going on since the first of the present month, and will continue to the end of it. The chief ceremonial observance will take place on the 15th, when the public subscription before the Temple of the gods of literature and war, Hollywood Road, between the 24th and 27th instants, when visitors and other persons, on a small scale, but rather larger than usual, from Hong Kong and other parts of the Chinese diaspora, will be present. At that time there was a floral display, and a display in honor of the occasion. We have heard that the Chinese had been in the place of silk collected for.

The steamer Chung Ching, Captain Chong, arrived here yesterday and reports having left Amoy on the 18th inst. The vessel in question was a pilot and struck a bank of the mouth of the river, causing the vessel to leak. It continued heavy gales and high seas for the first few days, during which the cargo shifted and the vessel made only slow progress. It was expected to arrive at Hong Kong on the 20th inst., but was delayed by weather on the 21st March, from which port she was towed to Plymouth, arriving on the 4th. When in port she had to discharge all the "brown cargo" and upon examination two beams in the main hold were found to be broken. The vessel was in port until the 22nd inst., requiring, after refitting clear of the Channel experienced gales for about four days, then the weather and light on the 26th inst. of Good Hope, crossing the line on the 27th inst. From the Cape and more gales for fifteen days, and then light breezes from the 10th to the equator, light breezes and calms through the Straits and Java Sea, also up the China Sea, S.W. breeze prevailing.

We are informed by a Chinese merchant in this Colony of a proceeding on the part of the master of a merchant steamer which reflects unfavorably on the Chinese community. The vessel in question arrived here a short time from Hong Kong, and on the passage up one of the Chinese passengers, a respectable trader, died. The passengers thereupon asked the captain to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so. He was then asked to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so. He was then asked to bring the body on to Hong Kong, and he refused to do so.

On August 19th, at "Clarendon," Victoria Park, CHARLES ALFRED KERR, the beloved infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McEwen. [1893]

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 21st, 1893.

A NOTIFICATION has been issued by Sir Thomas Wade, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul-General, in relation to the Chinese naval or military service in the event of war between China and Russia. Sir Thomas Wade says that he has noticed references to the subject in the local newspapers, and adds:—"I could have wished much that had been written on this subject unsaid, for while, on the one hand, speculation of the kind is calculated to excite false hopes, it is as likely on the other to produce a feeling of irritation." His Excellency goes on to remark that it is not his purpose to criticise the opinions expressed, but to remind such of Her Majesty's subjects as may take an interest in the question of military service in China of the existence of certain regulations which he thinks may have been overlooked by the writers in question. The regulations alluded to by Sir Thomas Wade are to be found in the Chinese and Japan Order in Council, 1865, and the paragraphs (81 and 82) bearing on the subject are appended to the Minister's notification. According to those regulations any person either aiding or taking part in a war carried on against China or carried on by China against another power or against a rebel force in China shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by two years' imprisonment with or without hard labour, with a fine of five thousand dollars, or by a fine of that amount without imprisonment. Such person if convicted is also liable to deportation. It is obvious, therefore, that any persons contemplating enrolling themselves in the service of China had better look before they leap. There are many, no doubt, who imagine they can enter the Chinese service without incurring any great risk, and some, for good pay, would join it, though all pains and penalties threatened in the Order in Council. A Shanghai contemporary says that a bureau has been opened for the engagement of foreigners for service in the Chinese army, and that it is really the fact, the British Minister's notification has not been issued any too soon. The Chinese Government will, however, probably experience little difficulty in securing the assistance of foreign mercenaries, if they require them, from among other nationalities.

Tax reports spread by the Shanghai papers that Colonel Gordon had agreed to accept the post of military adviser to His Excellency the Viceroy of China have proved, like many other statements concerning the gallant officer, altogether wrong. He has left Tientsin and has arrived at Shanghai en route, it is said, for England. It is quite probable that his mission has failed entirely, but it is also possible that the blunt, straightforward advice he is reported to have given the Chinese Authorities may yet bear fruit. In any case he has fulfilled his purpose in going to China, we presume, and he may now perhaps carry out his intention, expressed when in this Colony, of returning to England by way of Japan and America. Colonel Gordon has thus proved that he had no intention of entering the Chinese service, and we trust that he may, on his return to England, obtain some post better fitted for him and more worthy of his acceptance than a private secretaryship.
